

Dmytro Kiselyov

Special Counsel

Energy | Real Estate | Construction | Infrastructure

Dmytro.Kiselyov@integrates.com | +38 044 391 38 53

Professional Expertise

- Over 20 years of experience in international and Ukrainian law firms, advising mainly foreign clients on their construction and real estate matters, as well as business ventures in the energy sector (renewables) of Ukraine
- Involved in supporting clients on M&A transactions, corporate finance, corporate restructuring and investment projects
- Leverages extensive experience in consulting on commercial and corporate law matters, including legal due diligence and full transaction support
- Particularly skilled in project management, regulatory aspects of energy and infrastructure projects, real estate transactions and structuring of transactions

Industries

- Energy, including Renewables (solar, wind, biogas)
- Real Estate and Construction
- Infrastructure
- Agriculture
- IT and Telecommunications

Representative projects

- Advised Emergy AS on a range of projects in Ukraine's renewables with EUR 1.5 billion investment involved
- Advised VAMED on a large-scale supply transaction with the involvement of Ukraine state authorities
- Advised Eurocape on a regulatory and legal aspects of construction and operation of wind power generation project in Ukraine with EUR 150 million investment involved
- Advised Scatec on construction and operation of solar power generating facilities in Ukraine with the estimated cost exceeding EUR 150 million
- Advised Tyco Electronics on construction of production facilities in Ukraine with EUR 5 million investment involved

Education

- Donetsk National University, Master of Law with merits, 2001

Languages

Ukrainian, English, German